

HQIP

Healthcare Quality
Improvement Partnership

Junior Doctor 2016 Awards

Clinical Audit Support Centre and the Healthcare Quality Improvement Partnership's joint junior doctor clinical audit and quality improvement awards event took place in Leicester on 30 November 2016. Results were as follows:

Martin Ferris Award Clinical Audit prize winner:

An Audit of Haemoglobin Assessment after Post-Operative Blood Transfusion in Patients with Hip Fracture
Llewellyn O, Barnes P, Nadimi J, Yates J, McCann J.
Warrington Hospital

Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year – 1st place

Improving inpatient sleep on an acute medical ward
Zou D, Chin A, Atkins J, King A.
Nottingham University Hospital NHS Trust

Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year – 2nd place

Orthopaedic Weekend Review of Patients Who Have Undergone Hip or Knee Replacements or Surgery for a Fracture Neck of Femur
Godavitarne C, Bakti N, Kandel P, Yeadon M, Norris M, Thilagarajah M.
Dartford and Gravesham NHS Trust

Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year – Joint 3rd place

Improving Irregularly Irregular Anticoagulation for Atrial Fibrillation
Raiman L, Antbring R, Abu Sitta A.
Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust

Junior Doctor Clinical Audit of the Year – Joint 3rd place

Re-Audit: Taking Consent and Assessing Capacity to a Memory Assessment
Bangash A and Kakoullis A.
Coventry and Warwickshire Partnership NHS Trust

Junior Doctor Quality Improvement Project of the Year – 1st place

Please Don't Shock Me: A Project on Implantable Cardioverter Defibrillators (ICDs) at the End of Life Care and DNAR
Javaid M, Squirrell S, Chineah M, Hughes K, Farooqi F.
Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals

Junior Doctor Quality Improvement Project of the Year – 2nd place

Quality Improvement Project – Frimley Park Hospital Clinical Guidelines
Fraser A, Baker H, Talbott D, Naidoo U, Wilder P, Holcroft J.
Frimley Park Hospital

Junior Doctor Quality Improvement Project of the Year – 3rd place

Boot Camp: A free and easy solution to a growing problem
Isbister G.
Kent and Medway NHS and Social Care Partnership Trust