

Healthcare Conferences UK CASC Partner

Who are they?

Healthcare Conferences UK (HC-UK) were formerly known as Healthcare Events. HC-UK Conferences Group consists of Healthcare Conferences UK and their sister organisation, Social Care Conferences. The business was set up in 1998, prior to the recent name change in 2013. The business is led by Clare Gallagher, Managing Director and Founder and is based in Surrey. HC-UK have a small core team who set up conferences and training events with external expert facilitators.

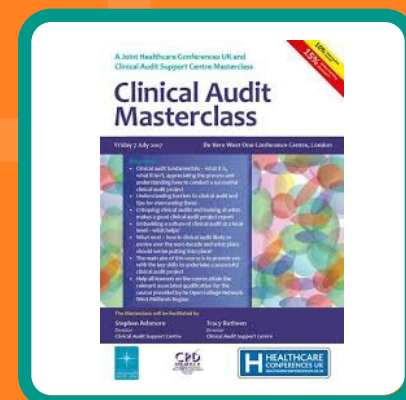

What they offer

HC-UK plan, manage and deliver Continuing Professional Development (CPD) approved healthcare conferences and masterclasses offering a clinical and non-clinical audience comprehensive knowledge sharing and learning opportunities. HC-UK offer a wide range of events and have always been firm supporters of clinical audit and quality improvement disciplines. Indeed, HC-UK have run an annual clinical audit conference each spring in London since 2000.

Facts and figures

HC-UK run over 160 conferences and training events each year. In addition, HC-UK also support in-house training and can provide bespoke CPD-accredited courses. The majority of courses take place in London, Birmingham or Manchester. In the main, courses are aimed at healthcare staff: doctors, nurses, therapists and managers. HC-UK courses help many clinicians meet their revalidation obligations.

How to find out more

HC-UK's website provides full details of the work that they undertake and this is accessible via www.healthcareconferencesuk.co.uk. Interested parties can also register for periodic updates of conferences. HC-UK are frequent users of Twitter and you can follow them on social media via @HCUK_Clare